

VIOLENCE AGAINST AID WORKERS IN 2013

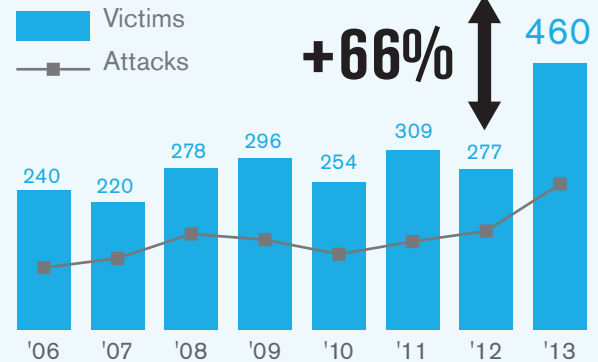

2013 set a new record for violence against civilian aid operations, with 251 separate attacks affecting 460 aid workers. The spike in attacks in 2013 was driven by escalating conflicts and deterioration of governance in countries like Syria and South Sudan.

AID WORKER VICTIMS

460 aid workers affected by attacks in 2013

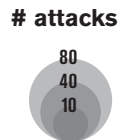

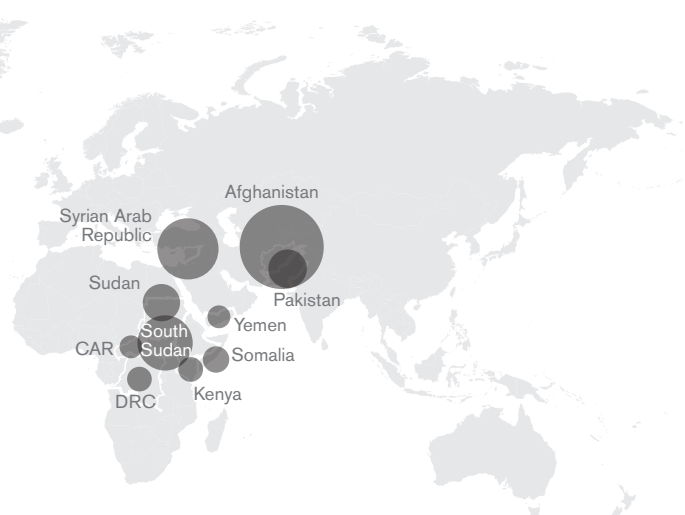

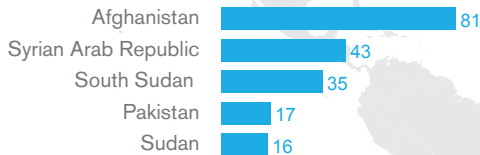

Yearly total of separate attacks and aid worker victims between 2006 and 2013

ATTACKS AGAINST AID WORKERS

251 separate attacks on aid workers in 2013

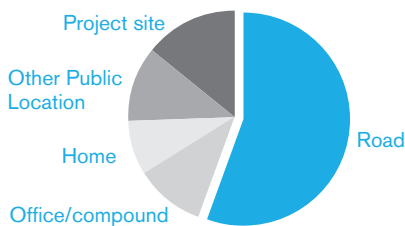

Countries with most attacks in 2013

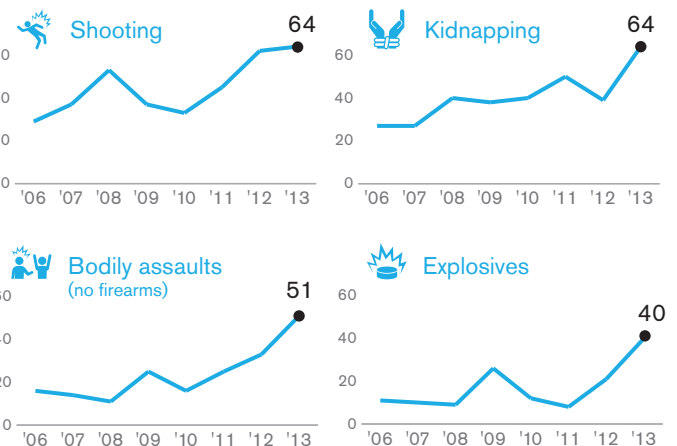

The boundaries and names shown and the designations used on this map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.

Attack locations* in 2013

56% attacks happened in transit

*Figures are based on 192 known locations out of a total of 251 attacks

Source: Humanitarian Outcomes

www.humanitarianoutcomes.org/awsd

10 AUGUST 2014
THE WORLD NEEDS MORE
#HumanitarianHeroes
WORLD.HUMANITARIANOUTCOMES.ORG